Map

Consignment Details

The blue line shows a quick visual representation of your freight's journey. If your job has been booked and not yet collected, the blue line will be at the beginning. Anywhere in transit from depots or on its way across the Cook Strait will show as In Transit. Estimated delivery will be fully blue when it reaches delivered.

Your Tracking History will guide you on where your order is at any given time of the delivery journey. The various status updates provide you with an accurate update of what stage your consignment is at and where your freight is located throughout our nationwide depots.

The map will show where your goods are located throughout their journey around the country. A solid line represents movements that have been completed. Dotted lines show movements that are in transit.

At the bottom of the consignment screen there is the Enquiry button. If you have any questions regarding the tracking information, select the enquiry subject to be “Transit Update” and one of our Customer Service team will get back to you with answers. Please make sure to include any additional information in the comments box to help our team deal with your enquiry quickly and accurately.
